

HOW GET TO YIALOS STUDIOS

Yialos studios are only a two minute walk from the port of Scala, Agistri. Agistri is less than hour from the Athens port of Piraeus and there is a choice of transport from Athens International Airport, all detailed below. If you let us know your flight details, we will ensure you have tailored information in order to make your journey to the island quick and simple.

All boats for Agistri leave from Gate 8 at the Athens port of Piraeus. PLEASE NOTE: boats leave on time !!!

HOW TO GET TO PIREAUS FROM ATHENS AIRPORT

BY TAXI

You will find taxis immediately outside the Arrivals' doors. The average charge is around 40 euro which will include airport and baggage charges. The average journey time is 45 minutes to an hour.

BY TRAIN

Immediately across from the Arrivals' doors and all on the same level, the metro (blue line) will take you into the centre of Athens where you can change onto a suburban train (green line) straight to Piraeus. The train costs in the region of 6 euro for a single fare, although there are great deals for couples and groups. The lines are very well equipped with escalators and lifts. At Piraeus station cross the road into the port and follow the signs for Gate 8.

BY BUS

The bus also leaves from immediately outside the Arrivals' doors. Purchase your ticket, which will be about 4 euro at the kiosk in the airport or, if this is closed, on the bus itself. The journey will take approximately one hour and a quarter and terminates at Piraeus, within one minute's walk of Gate 8.
